Revenue and General Departments.

SIR,

With reference to your official Memorandum No 1270 dated 10th June 1897, calling for a report regarding the repairs to the Gargeswara Swamy temple and the appropriation of the Endowment made by Ramalinga Paradesi to improve its Sasdik, I beg to state as follows:—

The temple in question is a very old building and the deity is held in high esteem. The southern and western walls of the building have fallen down and the terrace of the Garbhankrina being crack-ed is leaky, and repairs are urgently needed. The temple receives from Government an allowance of Rs 58.3-0 annually which is hardly enough even to meet its Pooditara Deeparadhane Expenses. and it has no funds at its credit to meet the Cost of its repairs. About 10 or 11 years ago one Ramalinga Paradesi a Mendicant itinerant from Kombakonum, out of devotion to the deity, re-paired certain portions of the temple with his own manual labor and set out on tour through India to raise, with the best of his endeavours, funds to meet the Cost of all its repairs and had Earned Rs 653-15-5 at the time of his death, which sum is now available in the Government Savings Bank at his credit. The inhabitants of the place are of opinion that the amount may be invested on landed property and the annual income thereby be availed for the temple expenses. But as the repairs to the temple are more urgently needed, an Estimate amounting to Rs 1050/ submitted by the Amildar of T. Narsipur Taluk in obedience to your order No 233 dated 10th August 1876 to him, is herewith forwarded for sanction of Government. The sum of about Rs 400/ required in addition to the aforesaid Ranalinga Paradesi's fund to make up the Estimated amount may be met from the State Grant in Consideration of the high esteem in which the deity is held.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your most obedient Servant

GOVERNMENT SAVINGS' BANK

PASS BOOK.

Mysore Government Central Press, Bangalore.—19-5-89.—2,400

Notification by the Chief Commissioner of Mysore.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

The 27th April 1880.

No. 23.—Under instructions from the Government of India, Foreign Department, the following Resolution of the Department of Finance and Commerce, No. 909, dated 20th February 1880 regarding Government Savings Banks, is re-published for general information, as applicable to Mysore, with the following modification :—

In Rule III for "Government of India" read " Government of Mysore."

Instead of Rule VIII read " On the written request of any Depositor the balance or any part of it will be remitted by the Treasury Officer to any person or company in Mysore free of charge, by means of a Public Service Transfer Receipt."

By Order,
W. J. CUNINGHAM,
Secretary.

Department of Finance and Commerce, No. 909, dated Fort William, the 20th February 1880.

READ again—

Resolution No. 2037, dated 20th December 1879, publishing the Rules for District and Presidency Savings Banks.

Resolution No. 385, dated 24th January 1880, providing that the above Resolution does not apply to Military Savings Banks.

Resolution No. 561, dated 5th February 1880, permitting the Comptroller General to receive and hold in trust Government Paper for any Depositor.

RESOLUTION.—Sundry additions having been made to the Savings Banks Rules published on the 20th December 1879, the Governor General in Council considers it expedient to issue the following Revised Rules for District and Presidency Savings Banks revoking all previous Rules :—

I.—In these Rules—

"Depositor," "Deposit," and "Secretary," bear the meaning which they bear in The Government Savings Bank Act, 1873.

"Account" means the account of a Depositor in a Government Savings Bank.

"Balance" means the balance at credit of an account.

II.—Any person may become a Depositor on his own behalf, or on behalf of any other named person dependent upon him. Deposits may also be made by the managers of benevolent or other public Associations, or by public officers of money deposited with them ex-officio as security for the discharge of any public duty or for the fidelity of any public officer, or for the accomplishment of any public object.

III.—Subject to the provisions of these Rules, the Government of India guarantees the re-payment of every deposit with interest.

IV.—Without the sanction of the Comptroller General no account will be opened for less than one Rupee and no person may deposit more than Five Thousand Rupees, in all, between any 1st of April and the 31st March next following.

V.—Interest will not be allowed upon a smaller balance than 1¼ Rupee, or upon the excess in any balance over the highest multiple of 1¼ Rupee.

VI.—Interest will be allowed for each calendar month upon the minimum balance of the account between the close of the fourth day and the end of the month.

VII.—From the 1st January 1880, till further notice, interest will be allowed upon deposits at the rate of one pie a month for every 1¼ Rupee, which is equal to one anna for every Rs 18 or one Rupee for every Rs. 288 being at the rate of Rs. 4⅙ per centum per annum. Without the sanction of the Comptroller General, no higher monthly interest will be allowed upon any balance than Rs. 17.

VIII.—On the written request of any Depositor, his balance, or any part of it, will be invested by the Comptroller General, in his own name in trust for, and at the risk of, the Depositor at current market rates, in stock of any loan which he may specify if no particular loan is specified, then stock of one of the Four Per Cent Loans will be bought. And stock or notes of any Government loan, to a moderate amount, may be received by the Comptroller General from or on behalf of any Depositor and converted into stock. The stock thus bought will be held by the Comptroller General on the Depositor's account, the interest thereon, less a commission of one-quarter per cent, being added to his deposit, on advice from the Comptroller General, and entered in his Deposit Book the first time that it is subsequently presented. Stock held on account of a Depositor will, on his written request, be sold and the proceeds added to his deposit, or, if he desires it, will be converted into notes and delivered to him. A Commission of ¼ per cent, besides the Bank's fees will be charged upon such purchases, sales and deliveries.

IX.—Every account will be made up on the 31st March and the interest then due, calculated under these Rules, added to the balance upon which future interest will accrue. If an account is closed on any other date, interest due to the end of the preceding calendar month will be paid to the Depositor; but a Depositor who closes an account should not, ordinarily, be permitted immediately to re-open it except on payment of a fine varying at the discretion of the Secretary from One to Ten Rupees.

X.—An account may be transferred free of charge to any other Government Savings Bank.

XI.—A Deposit Book will be supplied to each Depositor in which the Secretary, or, if the Savings Bank is at a Public Treasury, the Treasury Officer, will acknowledge every deposit. The personal attendance of a Depositor is not required; but no deposit will be received or payment made without the Depositor's Deposit Book, and the Government will not be responsible for any deposit the receipt of which is not acknowledged in a Deposit Book. The interest due to date will be entered in each Deposit Book the first time that it is produced after the 31st March. The first Deposit Book will be supplied free of charge; but if a Deposit Book is lost or injured, or if a closed account is re-opened one Rupee will be charged for a new book.

XII.—A Depositor may not operate frequently upon his account as if it were an ordinary banking account, or open more than one account in his own name or in the name of any member of his family or for his own benefit or the benefit of any member of his family. The Comptroller General must take precaution to prevent any transgression of this Rule, and, in particular, any employment of an account as an ordinary drawing account. This Rule is not meant to prevent any one from opening more than one ex-officio or public account.

XIII.—The Secretary may refuse to open any account or may close any account for any sufficient reason, as for example, because he thinks that the account is likely to be used or is being used contrary to the object with which Government Savings Banks are established, namely, the encouragement of saving. But every such refusal or closure, and the reasons for it, should be reported to the Comptroller General.

XIV.—When the Secretary thinks it proper to close any account, he shall give notice, in writing, to the Depositor, of such closure. After the date of such notice, no deposit shall be accepted on the account so closed, and no interest shall be allowed upon the balance of the closed account after the end of the calendar month then current.

XV.—The Comptroller General should report to the Governor General in Council any refusal to sanction an application under Rule IV or VII with his reasons for such refusal.

XVI.—These Rules apply as well to accounts open before as after their publication.

XVII.—The Governor General in Council reserves the right to alter or add to these Rules at any time.

XVIII.—A copy of the Government Savings Banks Act, 1873, and of these Rules, shall be printed in each Deposit Book, and the signature, or, if he cannot write, mark of the Depositor, obtained to the annexed declaration before any deposit is accepted from him.

Declaration to be recorded in accordance with Rule XVIII.

I acknowledged that I have read these Rules (or if he cannot read, that these Rules have been read to me).

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO GOVERNMENT SAVINGS' BANKS.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Law relating to the payment of deposits in Government Savings' Banks; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Preliminary.

Short title.

1. This Act may be called "The Government Savings' Banks Act, 1873".

Local extent.

It extends to the whole of British India;

Commencement.

And it shall come into force on the passing thereof.

Repeal of Act XXVI of 1855.

2. Act No. XXVI of 1855 (to facilitate the payment of small deposits in Government Savings' Banks to the representatives of deceased depositors) is hereby repealed.

Interpretation clause.

3. In this Act—

"Depositor." "Deposit."

"Depositor" means a person by whom, or an whose behalf money has been heretofore, or shall be hereafter, deposited in a Government Savings' Bank; and "Deposit" means money so deposited.

"Secretary."

"Secretary" includes every person empowered to manage a Government Savings' Bank;

'Minor.'

and "Minor" means a person who has not completed the age of eighteen years.

Deposits belonging to the Estates of Deceased Persons.

Payment on death of Depositor.

4. If a depositor dies leaving in a Government Savings' Bank a sum of money not exceeding one thousand rupees, and if probate of his will or letters of administration of his estate, or a certificate granted under Act No. XXVII of 1860 (for facilitating the collection of debts on succession, and for the security of parties paying debts to the representatives of deceased persons) is not produced to the Secretary of such Bank within three months, of the date of the said depositor, the Secretary of such Bank may pay the said sum of money to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it, or to administer the estate of the deceased.

5. Such payment shall be a full discharge from all further liability in respect of the money so paid.

Payment to be a discharge.

But nothing herein contained precludes any executor or administrator, or other representative of the deceased, from receiving from the person receiving the same the amount remaining in his hands after deducting the amount of all debts or other demands lawfully paid or adischarged by him in due course of administration.

Saving of right of executor.

And any creditor or claimant against the estate of the deceased may recover his debt or claim out of the money paid under this Act, or the said Act No. XXVI of 1885, to any person, and remaining in his hands unadministered, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the latter had obtained letters of administration of the estate of the deceased.

Saving of right of creditor.

6. The Secretary of any such Bank may take such security as he thinks necessary from any person to whom he pays any money under Section 4 for the due administration of the money so paid. and he may assign the said security to any person interested in such administration.

Security for due administration

7. For the purpose of ascertaining the right of the person claiming to be entitled as aforesaid, the Secretary of any such Bank may take evidence on oath or affirmation according to the law for the time being relating to oaths and affirmations.

Power to administer oath.

Penalty for false statement.

Any person who upon such oath or affirmation makes any statement which is false, and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, shall be deemed guilty of an offence under Section one hundred and ninety-three of the Indian Penal Code.

Deposit when excluded in computing Court Fees.

8. Where the amount of the deposit belonging to the estate of a deceased depositor does not exceed one thousand rupees, such amount shall be excluded in computing the fee chargeable, under the Court Fees' Act 1870, on the probate, or letters of administration, or certificate, (if any) granted in respect of his property :

Provided that the person claiming such probate or letters or certificate shall exhibit to the Court authorized to grant the same a certificate of the amount of the deposit in any Government Savings' Bank belonging to the estate of the deceased. Such certificate shall be signed by the Secretary of such Bank, and the Court shall receive it as evidence of the said amount.

Act not to apply to deposits belonging to estates of European soldiers or deserters.

9. Nothing herein before contained applies to money belonging to the estate of any European officer, non-commissioned officer, or soldier dying in Her Majestys' service in India, or of any European who, at the time of his death, was a deserter, from the said service.

Deposits belonging to Minors.

Payment of deposits to minor or guardian.

10. Any deposit made by or on behalf of any minor may be paid to him personally, if he made the deposit, or to his guardian for his use, if the deposit was made by any person other than the minor, together with the interest accrued thereon.

The receipt of any minor or guardian, for money paid to him under this section, shall be a sufficient discharge therefor.

Legalization of like payments heretofore made.

11. All payments of deposits heretofore made to minors, or their guardians by any Secretary of a Government Savings' Bank shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with law.

Deposits belonging to Lunatics.

12. If any depositor becomes insane or otherwise incapable of managing his affairs,

Payment of deposits belonging to Lunatics.

and if such insanity or incapacity is proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of the Bank in which his deposit may be, such Secretary may, from time to time, make payments out of the deposit to any proper person, and the receipt of such person, for money paid under this section, shall be a sufficient discharge therefor.

Where a committee or manager of the depositor's estate has been duly appointed, nothing in this section authorizes payments to any person other than such committee or manager.

Deposits made by Married Women.

13. Any deposit made by or on behalf of a married woman, or by or on behalf of a women who afterwards marries, may be paid to her, whether or not the Indian Succession Act, 1865, Section four, applies to her marriages; and her receipt for money paid to her under this section shall be a sufficient discharge therefor.

Payment of married women's deposit.

Rules.

14. All certificates under section eight, and all payments under Section ten, Section twelve or Section thirteen, shall be respectively granted and made by the Secretary of the Bank, subject to such rules consistent with this Act as the Governor General in Council may, from time to time, prescribe.

Rules regulating certificates under Section 8 and payments under Section 10, 12 or 13.

WHITLEY STOKES,
Secretary to the Govt. of India.
